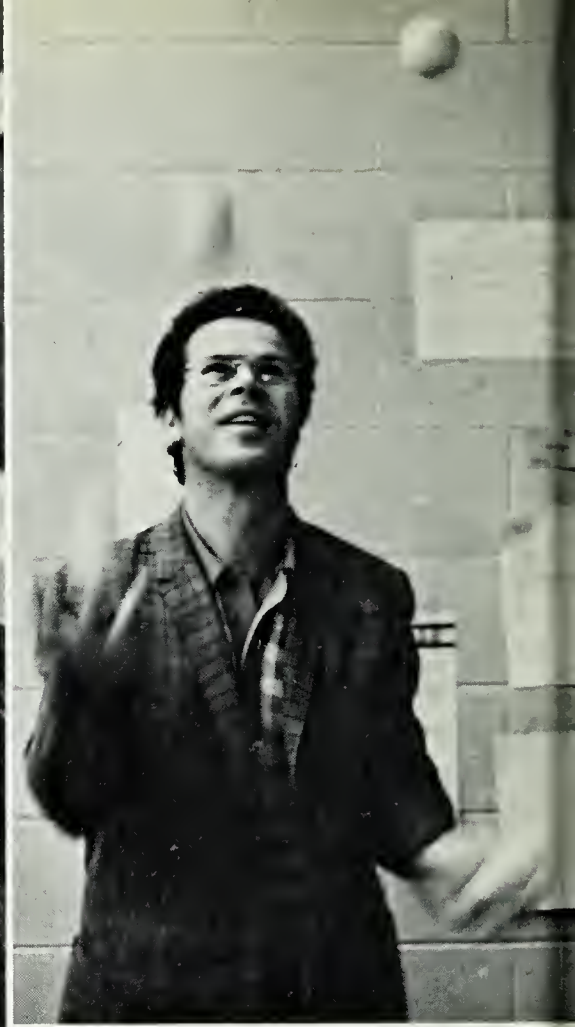
1975-1976, A Year of Growth, Change, and Individualism. What did We Have? We Had . . . "JAWS", OVERALLS, ALL-NIGHT PARTIES, Arguments about ERA, Painter's Pants, the Eagles — "One of these Nights", "Miracles" — A STARSHIP COME BACK, Of course there were Always those PSAT'S, SAT'S, ACH'S. Who could think at 8 AM? Finally those Applications and DEADLINES — THE WAIT.

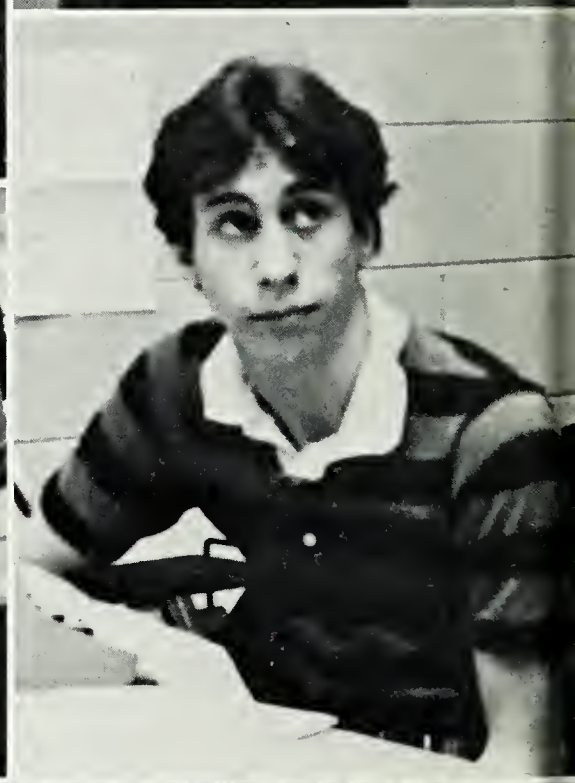
There was class unity — "Almost Heaven-77", "Seniors Number One!", "Gosh, those Freshmen are small", Aerosmith — "Dream On", Puka Shells, Lunch at MAC'S, Bald Heads and Disco Dancing. "Spirited Sophomores", Unreal Living, Platform Shoes, Extra For Ketchup and 60 cents for lunch. Crazy days of Heartache, Laughter, and Good Friends. It was a year of Nothing New But Nothing The Same.

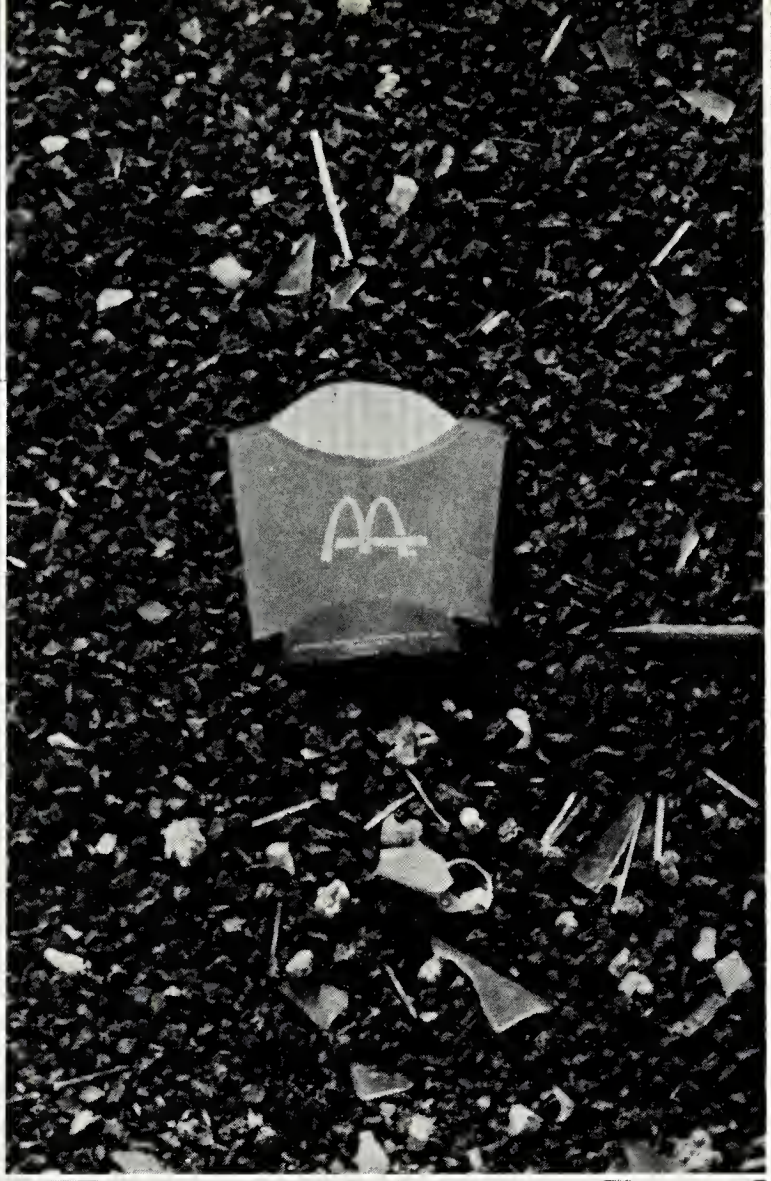
Rest on the lower bough,
Whose wings are frail,
Nor seek the riotous tops
Lashed by the gale.

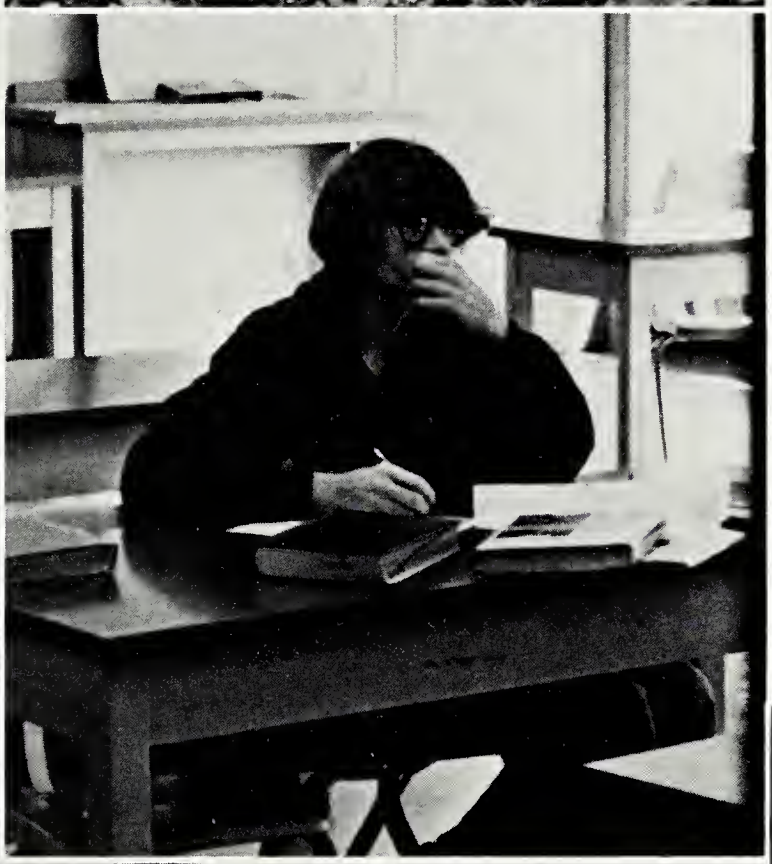
Let not ambition tempt
To flutter where
The eagle's iron wing
May scarcely dare.

Conde B. Pallen









So I seek for silence
Where the secrets are:
Silence like the moonlight
Or a falling star

Caroline Giltinan

STUDENT LIFE

As Homecoming '75 approached, each class worked diligently on hall decorations, follies, and floats with Bicentennial, 1776–1976 as a theme. The Seniors took First Place for the best float with the "E.H.S. Express". The winning hall was "Take a Trip Through the Time Tunnel" by the Juniors. The Sophomores took First Place in the follies, and the Seniors dominated the Juniors in the annual Powder Puff game. All this activity proved to be worthwhile as the Eagles defeated the Mount Vernon Majors 29–12 on Friday night. During halftime Michele Paylor was announced as Homecoming Queen and then crowned at the dance the next night.

JUNIORS

Kim,
It was kinda fun in art this year making fun of the strange people in that class. I've got one more year to go and after that I'm gettin the heck out of this place. I'll probably see ya in the halls next year. Look out of always and have a nice summer.
